

YOUNG WOMEN STRIVING TO LEARN

From the activity being displayed by the territorial board of education in the matter of revising the different courses of study in the schools of the territory, it would appear that the systems now in vogue are considered inadequate.

Superintendent of Schools Philbrook is in receipt of a communication from Territorial Superintendent Kirk T. Moore, naming him as chairman of a committee to revise the course in history as it is now taught. Mr. E. H. Stover, of Tombstone and Prof. E. D. Smith, of Globe, are to co-operate with Prof. Philbrook.

According to the latter, Supt. Moore is planning a general revision of every study course now in use. The reports of all committees are to be made to the territorial board of education at Phoenix during the week of the fall.

In addition to Prof. Philbrook's appointment, Prof. George E. Kinnell has already been named as a member of the committee on music revision.

DAINTY LITTLE GIRL MASCOT.

Pretty Margaret Hall Occupies That Distinguished Position in the Maine Legislature.

Little Miss Margaret Hall, aged seven, the daughter of Representative Willis B. Hall of Caribou, is the mascot of the Maine legislature, says the Boston Globe. Of the many boys and girls that sit in and out of the big stone building where stern lawmakers are busy framing the statutes, she is the most observed, partly from her always radiant smile, her cute sayings and her rollicking disposition.

Miss Margaret does nothing all day but enjoy herself, and in this pastime she finds plenty of people to assist her. Now and then some legislator, in a leisure moment, will sit down and tell the bright-eyed little miss some story or anecdote that seems to delight her heart.

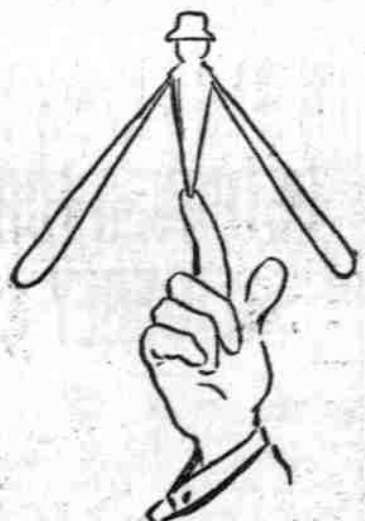

When the men go to this big hall for their first meeting, they reach into a little box and take out a slip of paper with a number on it. It is the number of the desk they are to occupy during the legislative session.

When it came Representative Hall's turn to take a number out of the box for his seat, he let Margaret draw it for him, and as it accidentally happened, she picked out one of the best in the hall. All the other men saw her as she sat on her papa's shoulder, and it made them all, and clap their hands.

She has already made the acquaintance of many of the lawmakers and public officials about the state house, and they look for her coming regularly as one of the welcome events of the day.

as to balance itself very amusingly. Get a piece of wood about two inches in length, cut one end of it into the form of a man's head and shoulders, and let the other end taper off gradually to a fine point, as shown in the figure. Next furnish the little man with wafers, shaped like ears, instead of arms, which wafers may be somewhat more than double the length of his body. Insert them in the shoulders and he is complete.

Dr. Johnson on Good Breeding. When Boswell suggested to Johnson that "Gen. Paoli," whom they had just left, "had the loftiest sort of any man he had ever seen," Johnson denied that military men were always the best bred men. "Perfect good breeding," he said, "consists in having no particular mark of any profession, but a general elegance of manners; whereas, in a military man, you can commonly distinguish the brand of soldier."

Two Fatalities.

Monday morning a C. & A. freight train struck two animals which didn't have sense enough to get off the track. They were only dogs, however, and their lives were not valued very highly by the trainmen. Nigger Palmer's back was broken, and his master called the ambulance (a wheelbarrow) and took the dog home. Ship Gent also received an awful job, but was able to go home unassisted. The condition of both dogs is considered serious, and it is feared that they will soon pass into the canine hades without hope. —Brighton (Ill.) News.

Keep the heart of a boy sweet, pure and innocent as long as possible. The world will let in foulness enough long too soon, despite your efforts.

Ovid advised his people to stay in that station in which they had been born. The world would be happier if Ovid's advice were more freely observed.

When trouble comes, as come it will to all of us at times, face it philosophically, quietly, masterfully. It will rankle less for your refusal to be utterly broken by it.

If we knew today that we were to die tomorrow, how fair, just and unprejudiced by greed and ambition would be all our actions to-day. And yet, any one of us may die tomorrow—and behold our acts, our thoughts, our prejudices!

GLOOM PREVAILS IN SMELTER CITY

DOUGLAS, Sept. 16.—(Special).—

There was an atmospheric disturbance especially noticeable about the various bulletin boards on G Avenue last night. An air of depression was met by an air of unbelief and both were finally supplanted by an air of gloom. There was trouble in the air. There was dissatisfaction with the telephone companies, the Douglas baseball team and everything else imaginable. And the cause of it all was an alleged telegram from Canada announcing an astounding and astonishing defeat of the Demons by the El Paso White Sox.

The local fans were in suspense all yesterday afternoon and all the early evening to learn how badly the locals had fared in their White Sox victims. Finally came the telegram which bore figures which were not understandable, and beyond the belief of mere mortals. The mere defeat of the Douglas Demons would not have been so incomprehensible, but when it was announced that the El Paso outfit had corralled 17 runs from seven hits and seven errors the fans simply could not figure it out. Hence the unbelief. And the announcement that Douglas had scored only one run on five hits while seventeen runs were tallied against them was a gloom producer. This gloom was made thicker when it was said that Clifford had been put in to succeed Kane. Then the waiters walked home slowly and sorrowfully, whistling in soft notes that new song, "When Horseshoe Harry Bumped the Bumps."

Starr, secured from Pittsburgh, is playing a great game for the Doves at second base.

Billy Hogg, the ex-New York Highlander pitcher, is doing fine work this year for Louisville.

Pete Noonan, a former Cub catcher, is wanted by Mobile of the Southern League. At present Manager Kitteridge of the Wilkes-Barre team holds the contract on Pete, but will allow him to go south if they get their price.

Bobby Lowe is out of league baseball and is now managing the Washington and Jefferson baseball team.

Grant, of the Philadelphia Nationals, made five hits out of five times up in a recent game. This is the league record.

The Cubs are doing nicely with Moran as their star catcher.

Morgan is up against a Jonah; although he pitches good ball, someone breaks in with a damaging hit.

Some nationalities on that Boston American team—yes? McConnell, Stahl, Chech, Cleotie and Arellanes, for example.

What a difference one year makes. At this time last spring Spike Shannon was regarded as a Polo ground fixture. Now he's playing center for Kansas City. Associated with Spike are those budding youngsters, Jake Packley and Monte Cross.
